NARRATIVE:

Goodwin, a convicted sex offender, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 30. His convictions include lewd acts w/child under 14, multiple convictions for failing to register as a sex offender, assault w/a deadly weapon, and failure to appear. He has served multiple state prison terms the longest a six (6) year term for lewd acts with a minor under 14. Goodwin was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on September 5th, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in April 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Goodwin qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for failing to register as a sex offender is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, sex offender status, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
